A 1016.c.24.

A PLAINE AND EASIE TABLE, WHEREBY ANY MAN MAY BEE directed how to reade ouer the whole Bible in a yeere.

FIRST FRAMED FOR the vse of a priuate familie, and now made publike for the benefit of the Church of God.

By IOHN WAYMOVTH, Gent.

PSALM. 1. VERS. 1. 2.

Blessed is the man that doth not walke in the Counsell of the wicked, nor stand in the way of sinners, nor sit in the seate of the scornefull: But his delight is in the Law of the Lord, and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

AT LONDON
Imprinted by Felix Kyngston, for William Welbie, dwelling at the signe of the Swan, in Pauls Church-yard.

BRITISH MUSEUM

TO THE PRINCE his Highnesse, CHARLES, The hope of great Britaine.

MOst Noble Prince, after I had finished this little Table, for a direction, to the reading ouer of the whole Bible in a yeere. I was earnestly entreated by diuers well affected Gentlemen: (some of no small note) to publish it for the common good: Whereunto after consent, I conceiued your Highnesse to bee the fittest Patron of this pious worke; and that in diuers respects: First, because your Highnesse walking in this narrow way of life, thousands may be allured to follow you. Secondly, because, as my studies did wholly tend to the seruice of (that neuer to be forgotten) Prince HENRIE, vnto whom I demonstrated diuers conclusions in the Mathematickes, so now on whom should they chiefly wait but on your Highneſſe, vnto whom to doe ſeruice I ſhall account my greateſt earthly freedome: I will not vſe many arguments, to perſwade you to obſerue this ſtrict courſe, onely that in Deut. 17. 19. where it is ſaid of the King, that he ſhould reade in the Booke of God all the daies of his life. And thus beſeeching your Highneſſe to pardon my boldneſſe, and graciouſly to accept this poore mite. I moſt humbly take my leaue:

Deſirous to doe your Highneſſe the beſt ſeruice I can,

IOHN WAYMOVTH.

The vſe of this Table.

THe vſe of this Table is ſo plaine, that I ſhall not need to ſpeake much of it. In a word, you ſhall find right againſt euery day in euery moneth, what Chapters are to bee read, both of the old and new Teſtament.

Example.

The firſt of Ianuarie you are to reade the firſt and ſecond of Geneſis, and the firſt of Matthew. The ſecond of Ianuarie, you are to reade the third and fourth of Geneſis, and the ſecond of Matthew: and ſo generally you ſhal find againſt the day of the moneth the Chapters to bee read for that day.

Now you are to reade two Pſalmes euery Sabbath day extraordinary till the 13. of December: and ſo ſhall you reade before that day 100. Pſalmes. Then proceed as in the Table.

The vse of this Table.

THe vse of this Table is so plaine, that I shall not need to make much of it. In a word, you shall find the Chapters against every day in euery moneth, what Chapters are to bee read both of the old and new Testament.

Example.

The first of January you are to reade the first and second of Genesis, and the first of Matthew. The second of January, you are to reade the third and fourth of Genesis, and the second of Matthew: and so generally you shall find against the day of the moneth the Chapters to be read for that day.

Now you are to reade two Psalmes euery Sabbath day extraordinary till the 15. of December: and shall you reade before that day too. Psalmes. Then proceed as in the Table.
